Weekly eZine No. 780

Welcome to the current eZine of Packaging South Asia

Our in-person coverage of the Ipack-Ima, Pharmintech and Print4All shows in Milan continues in today's eZine and in the Indian Printer & Publisher June issue that is in press for distribution at Printpack India. While we work on the June issue of Packaging South Asia, and IndiFoodBev and HealthTekPak, we are preparing to publish the Printpack India Show Daily on all five days of the event as we did at the 2019 show.

Similarly we hope to make a few short videos at the show in Greater Noida. Stop by at Hall 3 Stand B10 at the show to share your news of the past two years, and what you are looking for or have found at the show.

We urge you to put newsletter@ippgroup.in in your email address book or in your whitelist if you would prefer to actually read our weekly eZine. For advertising on our websites and newsletters, please contact ads1@ippgroup.in.

Thanks and regards,
Naresh Khanna, editor@ippgroup.in

Notes from Milan

As a general rule, most journalists look to construct a narrative out of an exhibition in order to pull all the announcements and interviews from the different vendors together into one coherent story. But I found it hard to do this at the recent Print4All show in Milan. Now, that could be because I'm losing my touch, or that I'm …
